

Complete Communities Planning Process

Every neighborhood's assets, challenges and vision are unique. However, the goal of Complete Communities is the same: to improve neighborhoods so that all of Houston's residents and business owners can have access to quality services and amenities. The Complete Communities Planning Process is designed to create an Action Plan that will guide how communities and their partners will reach that goal. This collaborative community-driven method will achieve consensus on a vision and goals, identify projects and strategies, set priorities, engage partners, create benchmarks to measure success over time and adopt the Action Plan. The final step is to implement the goals that completes the community's vision.

Acres Home

Acres Home embarks on creating a Community Plan to support its Action Plan. Acres Home's planning process will include steps 1-5.

Gulfton/Second Ward

Gulfton and Second Ward have existing community plans with neighborhood participation and support. Planning processes for these neighborhoods will integrate existing plans' vision and goals, identify any gaps by working through steps 2-5.

Third Ward/Near Northside

Third Ward and Near Northside have existing community plans rich with neighborhood participation and support. Because of its extensive planning work, Third Ward will begin with steps 3-5.
